1. Jesus taught his disciples that he would _______ again. (John 14:3) Jesus has been with his disciples throughout the Gospel age by his _______ and his _______. (Matthew 28:20)
   When our Lord said, “I will come again.”, he referred to a second ______________ presence.

2. The book of Revelation was written _______ years after Pentecost, and _______ years after the destruction of ___________________. Did our Lord, through John, indicate that his second presence was future from that time? _______ (Rev. 22:12, 20)

3. Are all sinners converted before the second coming of our Lord? _______ Only a “__________” is now being selected. (Luke 12:32)

4. __________ times are prevalent in the last days of the second dispensation. (2 Timothy 3:1-4) Are evil men at the present waxing worse and worse? _______ Our Lord’s special warning to the little flock was to take _______. (Luke 21:34, 35)
   Do all kindreds of the earth wail at the beginning of our Lord’s second presence? _______ (Rev. 1:7)

5. Some set the time of our Lord’s coming a long way off because they think it is the mission of the Church to __________ the world first. Is it God’s plan for the church to convert the world before the second coming of our Lord? _______
   The purpose of Christ’s reign is to _______ the world. (1 Corinthians 15:25) The reward of the over-coming church is to share in this ______________. (2 Timothy 2:12; Revelation 3:21; 20:4) The world of mankind will be blessed by the __________ (Head and body). (Genesis 22:18; Revelation 22:17)

7. Does witnessing to the world imply converting them? (Matthew 24:14) _______ The report of Bible Societies in 1861 was that the ________ had been printed in every [major] __________ of the earth. Have all the people of the world accepted the Gospel? _______

8. The main object of the __________ age is to take out a people for Christ’s name. (Acts 15:14) This bride is united with our Lord at his _______ advent.

9. The throne of God refers to his supreme _______ and _______. The heavenly Father highly exalted __________ and gave him a name above every name (the Father excepted). (Philippians 2:9) Does right hand in Psalm 110:1 refer to power, rulership, and authority and not to a fixed locality? _______ Does our Lord come to subdue all things unto himself? _______ (Phil. 3:21) ______________ was at the right hand of Pharaoh in the kingdom of Egypt. Our Lord will remain on the right hand of power during the Millennial age and __________. (Matthew 26:64)

10. The specific work of the first advent of Jesus was to __________ man. (1 Timothy 2:5,6) The work of the second advent is to _______ and __________ mankind. (Acts 3:19-21) To be accounted worthy of becoming the bride of Christ, the consecrated must _______ the influences of this present evil world. (Rom. 8:37) All the families of the earth will begin to be _______ shortly after the full union of the bride to the __________. (Rev. 19:7; 22:17)
11. The restoring of mankind did not begin immediately after the ransom price was provided because God provided for the selection of the _________. The us class in Hebrews 11:40 are the fully consecrated of the ________ age.

12. The purpose of the period between the first and second advents is for the selection and ________ of the church. If God had not purposed the selection of the church, the one advent of Christ would have taken place at the time of the ________ advent. God designed to permit evil for ________ years. The ________ of all things will be fully accomplished by the close of the seventh thousand year period of time from the fall of Adam.

13. Has enough time been set aside for the selection of the church? _______ Will individual blessings come to mankind after the church is complete? _______

14. The heaven retained our Lord until the times of ________ of all things. (Acts 3:19-21) Are the nations angry at the time of our Lord’s second coming? _______ (Revelation 11:18; Daniel 12:1) The mission of the church during the Gospel age is to ________ herself and ________ the Gospel for a witness. Was it God’s time to convert the world during the Gospel age? _______

15. Up to the present only a ________ have intelligently heard of the only name whereby one must be saved. Only a ________ understand the doctrine of restitution for the world. The ________ (Head and body members) is the promised seed. (Genesis 22:17; Galatians 3:16, 29)

16. The ________ of the LORD will not return unto him void. (Isaiah 55:11) During the reign of ________ the knowledge of the LORD will fill the earth. (Isaiah 11:9)

17. An election has been in progress during the ________ age as well as past ages. Free grace belongs to the ________ age.

18. Is the church selected according to fitness and adaptability? ________ The church is selected during the ________ age.

19. Since the fall of man into sin, have certain of God’s favors been restricted to special individuals, nations, and classes? ________ The rest of mankind will be invited to drink at life’s fountain freely during the ________ age. (Rev. 22:17)

20. Abraham’s spiritual seed is the ________.

21. Jesus tasted death for ________ (Hebrews 2:9)

22. Are some parts of the world more favored with the Gospel than others? _______ It is a privilege to be enlightened with the ________. The plan of God for the world’s salvation begins after the ________ is complete.

23. The promised seed will bruise the serpent’s head when the ________ is complete. (Romans 16:20; Genesis 3:15) Those who are ________ go into the marriage at which time the second Adam and the second Eve become one. (Revelation 19:7) During the earthly phase of the kingdom (the mediatorial reign), the Spirit and the bride will say, ________. (Revelation 22:17)

24. The groaning ________ is waiting for the manifestation of the ________ of God. (Romans 8:19, 22) The living as well as those who have died will be blessed after the church is complete because ________ died for ________. (Isaiah 55:10)

25. Will all who have died be awakened from the sleep of death? ________ (1 Corinthians 15:21) The dead will be awakened from death since Jesus gave himself a ________ for ________. (1 Timothy 2:3-6) In the fullest sense, the prisoners of hope are those who have ________ as well as those who are ________ to death. (Isaiah 49:9)

26. Have only a few been saints of God? ________ Have billions died in unbelief? ________

27. The wages of sin is ________—not torment. (Romans 6:23) All who have died in unbelief will be awakened and then come to an accurate knowledge of the ________. (1 Timothy 2:3-6; Isaiah 11:9)

28. Do thinking Christians wish to learn the truth? ________ Are the teachings of Atheism, Calvinism, and Arminianism contrary to the teachings of the Bible? ________

29. Do the scriptures support the view of Arminianism? ________ The scriptures teach that one must exercise ________ in order to be saved. (Ephesians 2:8) Upon whom must one call in order to be saved? (Acts 4:12; Romans 10:13)
30. Must one hear the gospel before he can believe? ________ (Romans 10:14)
31. Will ignorance save men? ________ By the Law is the knowledge of ________. (Romans 3:20)
   The written law condemned the _________. The light of conscience stops the ________ from claiming any right to life.
32. One is guilty of ________ if he keeps the whole law with the exception of one point. (James 2:10) Is there anyone righteous other than those who have the imputed righteousness of Christ? ________ (Rom. 3:10)
   Can one secure eternal life by meritorious works?

33. Many Christians are unwilling to accept the false teaching which states that infants and ________ go to a place of eternal torment when they die. God will not save the heathen through ___________________________.
34. If ignorance saves one, should missionaries go to teach the heathen about Christ? ________
   If ignorance saves one, should Jesus have died, and should his followers suffer and die with Christ? ________ Is the Calvinistic doctrine even more absurd and unreasonable?

35. Is the Bible full of the missionary spirit? ________
   All who do not believe at the present time will have an opportunity in due time to come to a full knowledge of the ________. One may come to God by ________ in the precious blood of ________. (1 Peter 1:19) The word gospel means ____________________________.
36. Should we look at these questions just as God tells us of them? ________
37. The reward is given to the church during the early part of the second presence of _________. (Matthew 16:27) The unjust are punished during the day of ________. (2 Peter 2:9)
38. Will God let anyone be lost from lack of having had the knowledge necessary to salvation? ________ God ________ the world so much that he gave his dear Son to die for ________. (John 3:16; 1 John 4:8)
39. Has every man been enlightened? ________ (John 1:9)
40. For whom did Jesus taste death? ________ ________ (Hebrews 2:9) The good tidings of great joy are for how many? (Luke 2:10) ________

41. The man Jesus gave himself a ransom for ________. (1 Timothy 2:5,6) Will all in due time come to a knowledge of the truth? ________
42. Does God have a due time for everything? ________ The due time for the church to believe is in the ________ age. An appreciation of the ________ brings responsibility.
43. Does death end all probation for the ignorant masses of the world? ________ When a man dies, does any change take place until he is awakened out of it? ________ (Ecclesiastes 11:3) There is no work, device, knowledge or wisdom in the _________. (Ecclesiastes 9:10) The order of the resurrection is Christ the ________ and afterwards those who are Christ’s at his presence. (1 Corinthians 15:23)
44. Death came by the first___________. (1 Corinthians 15:22) The second Adam is the Lord from _________. (1 Corinthians 15:47)
   Will experience with evil be advantageous to man? ________ Perfect ________ will be required of those who wish to live everlastingl.
45. God will not save anyone to the uttermost unless he comes to him through _________. (1 Timothy 4:10; Acts 4:12) Will any be given life against their wills? ________ (Deuteronomy 30:19)
46. Will all people be enlightened in due time? ________ (Luke 2:25-32; 2:10, 11) One who remains an unbeliever will not gain ________. (John 3:36)
47. Will those in the tombs be released? ________ (John 5:28, 29) Will hearty compliance with the laws of Christ’s kingdom be necessary if one wishes to receive life? ________ Those who draw back or ________ willfully after gaining full knowledge will die the ________ death. (Hebrews 10:38,39; Revelation 21:8; Acts 3:23)
48. Does the statement to be testified in due time explain difficult texts? ________ All were condemned to death because of whose transgression? ________ (Romans 5:18, 19) All may gain life by accepting whom? ________
49. All God’s holy ________ spoke of restitution. Is the restoration of the Jews to their own land promised? (Ezekiel 37:11-14) ________
50. Israel will be blind in part until the fulness of the _________. ________ be come in. (Romans 11:25, 26) ________ is back in her land to stay. (Amos 9:14, 15; Jeremiah 24:5-7)
51. In those days (the mediatorial reign) one will die for his own __________________. (Jeremiah 31:29, 30) People now die due to Adam’s _____________________________.

52. Was Israel a typical people? ________ The atonements made for Israel typified the better _________________________________.

53. The Sodomites were very _____________. (Genesis 19:24) The ___________ had more knowledge than the Sodomites. (Matthew 11:23) It will be more tolerable for the ___________ than for the Jews in the day of judgment. (Matthew 11:24) Was the city of Capernaum brought down to hell (oblivion)? ________

54. Will the day of judgment be a tolerable time for the people of Capernaum? ________ Had the people of Capernaum sinned against more light than the Sodomites? ________

55. The New Covenant will be sealed with the precious __________ of ___________. (Heb. 9:22, 23) Israel and the whole __________ will be blessed under the New Covenant. (Jeremiah 31:31-34)

56. The Israelites, the Sodomites, and the Samaritans will ___________ to their former estate. (Ezekiel 16:48-63) In due ________ they will be awakened from death and come to a knowledge of the ____________. During the Millennial reign they will be on trial for ______________ life.

57. Will the Amalekites have an opportunity in due time to gain life? ________ Does every member of the human race have a place in God’s plan? ________

58. Evildoers who do not repent during the Millennial reign will be utterly __________________—not tormented. (Acts 3:23) Were the Amalekites, Sodomites, and others already condemned to death in Adam before they were destroyed? ________

59. The captivity referred to in Ezekiel 16:48-54 is their captivity in ____________. The Christ will set at ______________ the captives. (Isaiah 61:1; Zechariah 9:11)

60. Do some find it difficult to accept these wonderful promises? ________ The promises pertaining to restitution are ________. (Acts 3:19-21) The New Covenant will be inaugurated with ______________. (Jeremiah 31:31-34) One can depend upon the promises of the heavenly Father because God is ________. The precious blood of __________ will seal the New Covenant.

61. Israel will be recovered from ___________. (Rom. 11:26-29) God does not change his ________.

62. The ___________. __________________. Samaritans and all ____________ will be ashamed when God shows forth the riches of his favor. God was willing to give his dear Son in order that the willing and ______________ might gain life.

63. God has given exceeding great and precious promises to the church to enable the consecrated to become partakers of the ______________ nature. (2 Peter 1:4) The provision made for the world is perfect human ______________. Many in Israel were blinded by ______________ and ________ tradition. Those of the church who see the dawning of the Millennial age should ______________ ________. (Luke 21:34)

64. The few now being selected will bless the __________ in due time.

65. The views of __________________ and Arminianism are wrong.

66. Justice and ________ are the two essential qualities of greatness lacking in the view of Calvinism. The teaching of eternal torment is wrong because God is ________. Justice is the ______________ of God’s throne.

67. The view of Arminianism is out of harmony with the plan of ________.

68. Does God lack ability and foreknowledge to accomplish his benevolent designs? ________

69. Has Satan in any measure thwarted God’s plans? ________ The almighty ______________ is in complete control of every situation.

70. The doctrines of election and free grace, taught in the Bible, are harmonious and ______________.

71. Evil, injustice, and death will be brought to an end during the second presence of ______________. (1 Cor. 15:25, 26) Those who ______________ with Christ will live and reign with him for the purpose of blessing all mankind. (2 Timothy 2:12)