

DIVINE PLAN BIBLE STUDIES
P O Box 385
Sharpsburg, GA 30277

THE TIME IS AT HAND
STUDY 1

SPECIAL TIMES AND SEASONS DIVINELY APPOINTED

NAME: _____

PHONE: () _____

- ♦ BEFORE filling in the blanks, please prayerfully study the 43 paragraphs and the scriptures cited with the questions. We suggest that you number the paragraphs in your book.
- ♦ Return your answers to us. PLEASE ENCLOSE A SELF-ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE. Our Canadian and International friends may make special arrangements for the postage.
- ♦ Your answers will be checked and returned to you for your future studies.
- ♦ STUDY 2 will be sent when you have completed this lesson.

1. (a) The various features of God’s plan have definitely appointed _____ and _____ for their accomplishment.

(b) The time is at hand for the near establishment of the earthly phase of the kingdom and for the individual blessing of all the _____ of the earth. (Genesis 22:18)

2. (a) Jesus taught us to pray “Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on _____ as it is in heaven.”

(b) The _____ day is now dawning.

3. (a) A careful study of “The _____ of the Ages” is necessary before making a study of “The Time Is At Hand.”

(b) Those who have implicit _____ in God can be led by the Spirit of God into advanced truth as it becomes due.

4. (a) In the time of the end the vision speaks and does not _____. (Habakkuk 2:3)

(b) The vision has been made plain on _____ or charts.

(c) The _____ (through faith) understand. (Daniel 12:10)

5. (a) Discarding all human ideas, the author of “The Time Is At Hand” keeps close to the fountain of divine _____.

(b) The wise (of God’s people) now understand the divine _____.

6. God’s plan, with its time features, is so broad, comprehensive, and harmonious that it is far beyond the breadth and depth of human thought, and therefore cannot be of human _____.

7. (a) The Gospel Age ends with a _____. (Matthew 13:30, 39)

(b) The work of harvest overlaps the incoming _____ Age.

(c) By the close of the Millennial Age the _____ of all things will have been accomplished.

(d) In the Gospel Age harvest the great time of _____ occurs; the complete overthrow of _____; the beginning of returning favor to _____; the second _____ of our Lord; and the _____ of the saints.

8. (a) To receive the testimony of “The Time Is At Hand”, the reader must have an ear to hear and must expect to meekly cast away many preconceived _____ when he sees anything lacking harmony with God’s _____.

(b) An understanding of the prophecies now unfolding will quicken and ripen and separate the saints, as wheat from _____ in this time of harvest.

9. (a) God’s grand chart of the _____ clearly maps out the orderly arrangement, the deep design and the wonderful scope of the divine _____.

(b) Faithful children of God long to know when the King of Glory shall come in and the prince of darkness be _____; when the children of light shall shine forth as the _____; when the saints shall be received into full divine _____ and the groaning creation released from the _____ of corruption; and when our heavenly Father's glorious character shall be fully revealed to an astonished world.

10. It is pleasing to the heavenly Father for his children to be interested in the _____ features of his plan.

11. (a) God is pleased for us to search the _____, and be in such an attitude which will discern truth as it becomes due.

(b) One is on safe ground as long as he studies the _____ of God and avoids idle _____.

(c) In due time and order every recorded feature of the times and seasons is manifested to those _____.

(d) The entire outline of God's plan, together with the time features of that plan, is due to be understood in the period designated "The time of the _____." (Daniel 12:9,10)

(e) Can the prophecies be understood until God's due time? _____

12. (a) To some of the disciples who inquired regarding the time for the establishment of the kingdom, our Lord said, "It is not for you to know (at that time) the times or the _____ which the Father hath appointed by his own authority." (Acts 1:7)

(b) Our Lord exhorted his disciples to take heed, _____ and _____. (Mark 13:32,33,37)

13. (a) Does our Lord now know concerning the times and seasons? _____

(b) The very fact that God's plan, with its time features is now discernible by those watching, is strong proof that we are now living in the dawn of the _____.

(c) If prophecy was not designed to be understood, would there be an object in giving it? _____

14. (a) The Almighty God has _____ and definite times and _____ for every feature of the work.

(b) God's infinite power and _____ guarantee that there can be no delay.

15. (a) At the time Jesus told his disciples to watch, the _____ had not revealed the times and seasons connected with his plans to anyone.

(b) Did our Lord rebuke those who wished to know regarding the times and seasons? _____

(c) When due, the time features are revealed to those _____.

16. (a) Those living in the "due time" who are obediently watching shall _____. (Daniel 12:9,10)

(b) One who neglects to watch loses a _____.

(c) Some who are not watching are either blinded by _____ or overcharged with matters of this _____.

(d) The fully consecrated should seek chiefly the _____ and life to come.

17. (a) On the mount of transfiguration Peter, James, and John saw in a figure the glory of the coming _____ of Christ. (2 Peter 1:16; Matthew 17:1-7)

(b) Moses represented the _____ (Hebrews 11:38-40) who shall be the earthly representatives of the heavenly kingdom.

(c) Elijah represented the _____ of this Gospel Age. (d) While relating the vision, Peter points to the prophetic testimony and urged a _____ attitude on the part of the saints. (2 Peter 1:19)

(e) The subject of _____ was spoken by all of God's holy prophets. (Acts 3:19-21)

18. (a) The Day of the Lord comes as a _____ in the night, (1 Thessalonians 5:1-4) but the watchers are not in darkness.

(b) The trouble which comes during the first part of "the Day of the Lord" is sudden as "_____ " upon a woman.

19. (a) The faithful, meek and humble students of the word will at no time be in _____.

(b) Name some of the faithful of the house of servants who were informed of events beforehand: _____, _____, _____, _____.

(c) Jesus certainly shall know of the times and seasons in due time since he is to accomplish the _____.

(d) He makes known the plan to those close to him and associated in his work—his _____, his saints.

20. (a) Most of what was revealed to God's servants, the prophets, (Amos 3:7) was not for themselves but for the Gospel _____. (1 Peter 1:12)

(b) The day of the Lord will not come upon the _____ as a thief and a snare for they will be watching.

21. (a) The children of the light are begotten of the _____. (James 1:17,18)

(b) The fully consecrated are developed and sanctified by the _____. (John 17:17)

22. (a) The saints who are watching have _____ of the fact that the day of the Lord has begun, but the world is in _____.

(b) The consecrated must watch, pray, and take heed lest at any time their hearts are overcharged with _____ of this life. (Luke 21:34-36)

23. (a) Children of God, living in the day of the Lord, who remain in ignorance of the fact must be either surfeited with the things of this life and _____ with the spirit of the world, or else _____ with the cares of this life.

(b) The saints are exhorted to watch with their lamps trimmed and _____ and with _____ in their vessels.

24. (a) The prophecies uttered by the prophets, though recorded aforetime, and made to bear witness to the divine foreknowledge and arrangement, were for the learning of those living in the due time for their _____. (Romans 15:4)

(b) The patient, searching children of God need "meat in due _____" during this evil day.

(c) At the same time the old order is passing away, the new era and dispensation _____.

25. A combination time-lock used in some of the largest banks illustrates the divine arrangement of time _____.

26. (a) Since we are living in the morning of the great day of restitution, Jehovah's Anointed is giving the watchers the necessary information as to how the key of prophecy is to be operated by those who desire to find _____ of infinite wisdom.

(b) Those who are watching may unlock the treasures of divine wisdom because the _____ hour has come.

27. (a) Each feature of truth may be opened now because it is _____.

(b) He who opens will indeed know _____ as never before.

28. (a) We should examine the scriptures with a _____ spirit.

(b) It is the privilege of the saints to now lift their heads and rejoice because their _____ draweth nigh. (Luke 21:28)

29. (a) Our God is a God of _____.

(b) Are all the features of God's plan carried out on time? _____ (Galatians 4:4; Mark 1:15; 1 Corinthians 15:4; John 7:30)

30. (a) Time prophecies were given to enable the student of the word to recognize the foretold events when _____.

(b) Prophecies marked the time and manner of the _____ advent and also the _____ advent of Christ, the world's Redeemer.

31. Are the majority of professed Christians indifferent to the prophecies which point out both advents of Christ? _____

32. (a) Did fleshly Israel, as a whole, know the time of the first advent of Christ? _____

(b) Did the prophet foretell the stumbling of both the houses of Israel—the nominal Jewish house and the nominal Christian house? _____ (Isaiah 8:14)

(c) Only a _____ in the harvest of each dispensation is prepared to receive and appreciate the truths then due.

(d) Each individual Christian should see to it that he is not one of the lukewarm nominal Christians which shall surely _____.

33. (a) Careful attention should be given not only to time-prophecy but also to the _____ of our Lord's second presence.

(b) In addition to knowledge, the child of God should be holy and _____.

(c) Will the worldly and overcharged ones discern the signs of the time? _____

34. (a) Our Lord at the first advent dismissed the _____ quibbles of the Pharisees with dark and _____ answers.

(b) Jesus made the truth clear to the _____ earnest seekers. (Matthew 13:10,11)

35. (a) Truth separates the earnest and humble, and strengthens, and _____ them.

(b) Those with the improper condition of heart will be unworthy to become the _____ of Christ.

36. (a) The scriptures counsel us to cultivate the graces of Christian character and to preserve constantly that condition of heart which will enable us to discern _____—especially the great truth of our Lord's presence and the dispensational changes.

(b) Truth is a sickle which _____ the wheat from the _____.

37. (a) Does odium attach to the study of prophetic time? _____

(b) Have "Second Adventists" and others misapplied prophetic time? _____

(c) The worldly wise at the first advent said: "Can any good thing come out of _____?" (John 1:46)

38. (a) Did both the Jews at the 1st advent and the Second Adventists have false expectations? _____

(b) Have the Adventists failed to recognize the manner and the object of our Lord's return? _____

39. Is one blessed who does not heed the scornful smile of the world? _____

40. (a) God seeks one who worships him in spirit and _____. (John 4:23)

(b) Prophetic time was not given for the world but for the church to enlighten, _____, _____, and guide them in these troublous times.

(c) The true church will point to the glorious _____ of Jehovah's plan and will lift up _____ for the people. (Isaiah 62:10)

41. (a) The prophetic time-evidences were designed to guide our words and deeds in the early dawn of the _____ Day.

(b) Will the student who gives attention to the prophetic time-proofs have lasting profit? _____

(c) God's plans are working together in _____ as well as in kind, to the development of his glorious purposes.

42. (a) Were the Jews and the Second Adventists looking for the wrong thing at the right time? _____

(b) The fire which is to devour the earth in the Day of the Lord is _____, not literal.

43. (a) Does it do violence to some prophecies to endeavor to make them fit into a 24 hour day? _____

(b) The order and harmony of God's plan are just as manifest in its _____ and seasons as in the glorious features of that plan mapped out on the Chart of the _____.